Residential Pontoon & Jetty Liability

Incident Examples of possible incidents giving rise to a claim for the pontoon/jetty owner:

- Uninvited individuals might access your pontoon or jetty, increasing the risk of injuries for which you might be held liable.
 - Slip-and-fall incidents due to wet or slippery surfaces.
 - Falling into the water, especially for children or non-swimmers.
 - Injuries from structural failures like collapsing planks or railings.

Who may need this policy?

Individuals or companies who own or lease a private pontoon/jetty that is connected to a private property.
